

Enchanting Lorelei

I follow heads of her heart once out they part doubt and tales swallowed me a kaftancoated she
the shadows on her right she's an angel of light

Enchanting Lorelei
sings to the sky
her voice burns
through the day
leads on my eye
Lorelei

A layers heart pitch of sighs we'll meet by the limes and briars it's chill on moonrise she cuddles where I lie to my own it bleeds
how the river breathes

Hear new rain
has chant like beaten fell lightning down in us a siding close to Eden
she brides me
on the moss
