

You've got to save me

You've got to save me
because I'm weak
you've got to hold me tight
in my need
when I wander
through the drifting shades you've got to lead me
to the gates

You've got to save me
because I'm weak
search my heart when it's swollen bleak
in the hour
of the roosters crow
you've got to blaze me
when lights are low

Stay with me now
till time will end
I know you always will be my heaven sent

You've got to save me
because I'm weak
for I'm the strayman
in the catbird seat
while night is blooming and touches my face
you've got to sweep me
with your grace

You've got to save me
because I'm weak'
carry me higher
when I've fallen deep
you've got to save me
because I'm weak
